To: Hiroko

Subject: Kyoto visit

Hi Hiroko,

How are you doing? I'm sorry I haven't emailed you recently. I have been busy trying to find a job since I left Japan. I want to teach English again, but it is difficult to find a job here.

Anyway, I remember you lived in Kyoto before and I want to ask for your advice. My brother is visiting Japan next month, but he doesn't like temples. If he goes to Kyoto, do you know any other good things for him to see or do?

Thanks for any advice,
David

Subject: Re: Kyoto visit

Hello David,

It's very nice to hear from you! It feels like a long time since you were my teacher! I'm sure you will find a job soon — good luck.

That's great that your brother is visiting! Kyoto has many things to see. There are beautiful gardens, and a lot of old streets with interesting shops. Also, it's nice to walk along the river, and try to see a real geisha in Gion. Actually, I am going to go to Kyoto next month, too, to visit friends. If I can meet your brother, I will show him around. Let me know when he is going to be there.

Best wishes,
Hiroko
